MARITIME FORECAST

Sandy Hook to Hatteras: Moderate to fresh southwest winds, weather somewhat overcast, probably showers Tues.

By WEBB MILLER

driver of Bilbao, said he saw the Basqu militia retreat from the terrorized city before he voluntarily gave himself up at the in

Heretofore

To Open

Payments to Dependent Children Should

Make a Difference

Children's Home, which it is proposed to abandon and sell, will soon be needed no longer is "Seldom is a child sent there for punishment or because of deto the Children's Home.

(Continued on Page Three)

Rehearsals of "The Lost Colony" Begin

at Old Fort Raleigh

Katherine Cale, who is to play the leading role in "The Lost Colony," Paul Green's Pageant Dra-teo for the first time yesterday afternoon and began her residence companied by several others of take the major parts in the play.

been said about here in advance charm and attractiveness, is a Bri-

Another British native is Mrs.

ed. Barry Shannon, who is casting been born in Dublin, Ireland.

(Continued on Page Three)

Miss Cale who is all that has

Manteo, June 14. — Beautiful

Katherine Cale

Arrives at

Manteo

er be needed.

Why the Pasquotank's County

With Gen. Davila's Army at the

To Occupy Bilbao Today

Rebel Armies Expected

SINGLE COPY 5 CENTS

Representative Attacks Murphy's Strike Stand; Would Lead Armed Force

wis Would Enlist aid of Lake Shipping Lines

hnstown Trouble

w Fears Outbreak Aris-From Clashes With labor Picket Lines

Telegraphs Mayor

A Knaggs, of Lewis, head for industrial al and iron ore ours after Lewis, the United Mine a strike of nearin so-called operated by and Steel Corp., the

Believed to Have Gone Down With Crew which overtook the motorship, Nunoca, off masts last summer.

an Tampa bay bound for and a cargo of bananas. my and McGregor, her " Tampa, said no clues to and gone down with Maloa last was heard from the 4-two days after she Guard headquarters here men in her crew. Officials Named mally carried a few pas-

Merence Today On

A addition to the regular ite for Highway ^{stablish}ment > nerce-Merchants as- building. expected to go to day expects to be in F. Sample. quote prices on some which are regarded as the purpose.

Senate Committee Asks Rejection Court Change

Charge Violation of Precedent and Undermining of the Judiciary by Applying Force to Courts; Is Against Spirit of the Constitution

June 11. (U.P.) ministration majority, today de- own substitute. Holfman, R., manded rejection of President The majority report gave the ganization bill, describing it as an of the court bill: utterly dangerous" abandonment of constitutional principles.

There was no discussion, and the independence of the courts. casual acceptance of the report! to was in sharp contrast to the four the history of our government and a threatened invasion months of bitter debate that fol- would itself be a dangerous precelowed introduction of the bill on dent for the future.

Tax Dodgers' of the constitution without the people's consent or approval; it Names To Be constitutional system gives to minorities and is subversive of the Made Public

Doughton Will Be Chairman of Joint Committee of Investigation

Washington, June 14.—(U.P.)— Secretary of the treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., will disclose the names of alleged wealthy tax dodgers in the first public hearing by a joint congressional committee into tax evasion on Wednesday or Thursday, it was announced tonight.

Sen. Pat Harrison. D., Miss. chairman of the senate finance committee, made the annuncement after he and Rep. Robert city."

Fla. June 14.—(U.P) summon alleged tax dodgers other end of the ship. adquarters tonight named by Morgenthau for queshe vessel went down do. the committee will hear night club three years ago, and them.

sailed from Tampa June 2 head the two committee charged must have planted them." British Honduras, with with the preparation of tax legisdiplicated the unsolv- after speaker William B. Bank- ped by Doyle just before he left head, D., Ala., had named four London. He said he was going to

(Continued on Page Three)

Washington, June 14. - (U.P.) - while he agreed that the presi-The S nate Judiciary committee, dent's bill should not pass he rethrough its ten-member anti-ad- served the right to vote for his

Roosevelt's supreme court reor- following arguments for rejection 1. "The Bill does not accomplish

Sen. Pat Harriscn, D., Nev., in- which it was originally offered. troduced a 12,000-word report strongly condemning the measure diciary and in its initial and ultireli- soon after the senate met at noon, mate effect would undermine the

"It violates all precedents in

4. "The theory of the bill is in Sen. Pat McCarran, D., Nev., in- | direct violation of the spirit of the elegraphed his offer filed a statement noting that American constitution and its emof the constitution without the undermines the protection our rights of individuals.

5. "It tends to centralize the federal district judiciary by the ower of assigning judges from

(Continued on Page Three)

Libby Reynolds Not Going To the Altar

Says Engagement Report Was Doyle's 'Cheap Publicity Trick'

Doyle, the "Irish Thrush"-sing- Pool; historian. L. Doughton, D., N. C., chairman of the house ways and means of the house ways and means of the house ways and means hour and a half with President hour and a half with President who these persons are?" asked who these persons are?" asked Harrison on departing from the white House. "I am sure that the glieved to Have Cone."

Nosevelt.

Why not let the country know who these persons are?" asked Harrison on departing from the white House. "I am sure that the glieved to Have Cone."

Nosevelt.

Why not let the country know who these persons are?" asked Harrison on departing from the white House. "I am sure that the glieved to Have Cone."

Nosevelt.

Why not let the country know who these persons are?" asked Harrison on departing from the white House. "I am sure that the glieved to Have Cone."

Nose mother is a dough to see the tall buildings and the busy streets—her reward for waving twice a day for almost executive committee. I. P. Davis, M. L. Clark, George Setts and C. B. Jone.

The local Voiture, which already has around 20 members and expects to add that many of the Child with relatives or some other family where he will represent the country has a round 20 members and expects to add that many of the Virginia Dare Hotel the later of the Virginia Dare Hotel the later of the busy streets—her reward for waving twice a day for almost executive committee. The local Voiture, which already has around 20 members and expects to add that many of the Virginia Dare Hotel the later of the busy streets and once of the busy streets and abuse has a round 20 members and expects to add that many of the Circh of the busy streets and a local voiture, which already has around 20 members and expects to add that many of the Circh of the busy streets and once of the busy streets and a busy and shall be observed in the busy streets of the bus committee will want full publi- Miss Holman herself, who also arrived on the Normandie and was Asked if the committee would furiously pacing the deck at the Maloa, aban-certifying the them will want to appear. If they man. He danced with me in a we were hardly on the floor when Cost Harrison and Doughton, who two photographers popped up. He

The hint that Doyle and Miss Herbert Hood, aboard lation, went to the White House Holman were engaged was drop-

(Continued on Page Three)

Auto Restrictions A New 'War Between The States

had been received and Township Soil Committees

Association Will Handle Soil Conservation Program In County

The first step toward the organization of the Pasquotank County Soil Conservation Association, which will administer the soil conman of the Pasquo- servation program in this county, of county commis- was taken Saturday when town-G. C. Meads, secre-ship committees were elected at a Elizabeth City Cham- meeting held in the community

The committees elected were as to confer with follows: Nixonton township-C. L. Colin Barnes and Ball, R. E. Benton, Gilbert Godneer R. R. Roper in frey and H. G. Reid; Mt. Hermon with a site for the -C. C. Bright, John Pike, Z. W. and shops of the White and H. E. Ownley; Newmission here. W. J. land-J. H. Bright, J. A. Spence, district mechanical J. E. Temple and Conder Graingthe city yesterday er; Providence and Elizabeth City town hips— E. L. Whitehurst, J. ation which goes to R. Brothers, L. E. Owens and H.

Due to lack of sufficient attend-

(Continued on Page Six)

Crossing State Lines Now Almost Like Entering Foreign Lands

Washington, June 14. —(U.P.)— The American Automobile AAsociation tonight reported that the modern "war between the states" had reach a stalemate and that the high peak in establishing restrictions for motorists at state boundaries apparently had been reached.

Eighteen states have some sort of the Mississippi.

conditions were getting so bad that crash auto travelers complained that to cross western state borders was almost as difficult as going from of this week. one country to another in Europe with the complicated routine of customs inspections, passport and visa supervision.

The following five types of barriers may be encountered at western state lines, according to the AAA survey.

(Continued on Page Three)

Still Ailing

THREE specialists were called to loyalist army has fled from Bilbao examine Dowager Queen Marie of and that the city is at the mercy Rumania, at her summer home at of Gen. Josef Fidel Davila's arm-Sinaia. She failed to recover quick- ies. ly from grippe and gastric hem-

Officers

Roland Garrett, Chef de Gare of Pasquotank Voiture; 'Wreck' Soon

Officers for the newly-organized Pasquotank Voiture of the Forty and Eight. American Legion subsidiary organization, were named last night at a meeting held in the Community Building following the regular meeting of the local Legion Post.

The Forty and Eight officers are as follows: Chef de Gare (president), Roland Garrett; chef de train: vice-president), Jerome B. Flora: conducteur (master of ceremonies). Harry Sheep; Commissair Intendant (treasurer), S. explained most interestingly by G. Etheridge; correspondent (sec- A. H. Outlaw, County Welfare J. Boswell; avocat Agent advocate), John Hall; guard de la ports (sergeant-atarms), W. T. Love, Jr., and W. K. Davis: comis voyageur (property man) John Kambis; aumonier chaplain), Jesse P. Mercer; New York, June 14.—(U.P.)—Jack drapeau (color bearer), H. J.

(Continued on Page Three)

"What a gentleman!" she snapped when reporters asked her if At Below

Price Fell to $1.40 Yesterday; Crash Did Not Materialize

With the price standing at below cost of production, potato grow ers in this section apparently are holding off as long as possible in their digging. Less than 40 carloads of potatoes moved from Elizabeth City yesterday and last night as the local track price to growers sank to as low as $1.40 per barrel. Many growers had expected the bottom to arop out of the spud market last Thursday morning, in view of the record shipment of 1,686 cars last Thursday, followed ma, stepped from the bus in Manpy 1,356 cars on Friday. It was thought that these enormous shipments, pouring into the for the summer here. She was ac-Northern markets over the week end, would cause the market to the professional players who will go to pieces, but the potatoes oddly did not accumlate on any one market but apparently were of restrictions that require motor- pretty well distributed. This fact, notices with respect to personal ists to run a gauntlet of investigations, permits, certificates, fees that the governmen intended to tish subject and was born in Briand long delays, a recent AAA sur- purchase quantities of spuds in tish South Africa. She will play vey showed. All but one are west an effort to stabilize the market, the dual role of Eleanor Dare and is believed to have prevented or Virginia Dare and is here along AAA officials explained that at least delayed the impending

Heavy digging in this county is expected to begin about Thursday

TODAY'S LOCAL CALENDAR 8:30 Mens Christian Federation

6:30 Kiwanis Club 7:30 Jr. OUAM 8:00 Masons' meeting Library hours 2-6, 7-9 In Streets of Bilbao

As Correspondent Saw

Fall Of Bilbao

Gates of Bilbao (by Courier to Hendaye)—June 14.—(U.P.)—Warweary Basque soldiers, hundreds Lisbon, Tuesday, June 15 .of whom are surrendering to the (U.P.)—The insurgent radio at nationalists with cries of "Viva Durango, 16 miles southeast of Franco!" told me tonight that the Bilbao, said today that the Basque Loyalists had fallen back from their trenches into the center of the capital where they were massing to meet the Ernesto Gracio, 23-year-old taxi Nationalist advance.

The radio said street fighting had begun between the advance guard of the Nationalist and Basque troops.

The city cannot offer much re-sistance," he said. "There are only in the Fascist salute as they came in the Fascist salute as they came a few clumsy barricades, thrown across the shattered "iron ring" up hastily in the streets. It is of defenses which they thought would save their city. Hundreds of these Basques, who They were taken in trucks to only a few hours ago were killing the insurgent base at Vitorio, guarded by assault troops. Doors Closed I saw one of the assault guards, paying no attention to his 40

> The Basque prisoners were a motley lot, some in uniform, others in farm clothes. A few wore greasy trench caps.

Violet Schmidt Gets Trip To Big City

Railroad Rewards Nine-Year-Old Who Waved at Every Train

linquency," said Mr. Outlaw. 'There hasn't been a case of that New York, June 14.—(U.P.)—Viotype sent to the Children's Home let Schmidt, 9, who lives in a gray in several years. Nearly every cottage by the railroad tracks at child sent there is sent because Elkhart, Ind., came to New York his parents are dead or are not today to see the tall buildings and other family where he will re- brown-haired girl who always weeks, it was anounced yesterday ceive better treatment. But when waved from the window of the by Postmaster W. T. Culpepper. we could find no one to take such gray cottage when the train a child, we had to send the child screamed past Elkhart. But today, "But now that Social Security erick E. Williamson, president of benefits for dependent children are soon to be made available, the Children's Home will no long-"I left Jimmy to take my place," Payments to dependent chil-the waving until I get back Wed- offices. dren will be $18 for the first child nesday. I hope he remembers how I showed him. It's sort of a sidemotion, like this."

Schmidt came along too, and for and a pair of white shoes. She sat on Williamson's desk and answered questions gravely, How did she happen to start waving? "It was a long time ago," Violet

(Continued on Page Three)

ed to told the same story. Fighting May Continue "We are not volunteers; we were forced to fight, and we saved ourselves by hiding in bomb-proof shelters and waiting for the reds to leave before we came out car-rying white flags of surrender." Angel Manas. 22. a radio mechanic in Bilbao, said he and the entire first brigade of the Bilbac

Every one of the dozens I talk defense surrendered, including the officers and Major Valejo, chief of staff of the "iron belt" defense. "I'm worried about my wife, Manas said. "She is in Bilbao."

As the Basques-treated more like refugees than prisoners of war-streamed back through the ers. nationalist lines I camped on a mountain peak looking down on Bilbao, waiting for dawn and an opportunity to enter the city with Davila's armies.

The crowded city below me, and burning buildings, appears city tomorrow. doomed.

Couriers bring us word that the prisoners and reading a Bilbao city already The big break of this long and bitter siege seems at hand. I have seen one of the most amazing panoramas of warfare have been taken prisoners on the that I have witnessed in my 20 years as a war correspondent.

To the northwest, along the beautiful Bay of Biscay coast, I can see long lines of refugees streaming from the city. Within the 700-year-old town, celebrated for its fighting blades of steel

(Continued on Page Three)

May Register Here Till June 30

Deadline Set for Taking Applications for Security Numbers

A letter from the Social Secur ity Board to Mr. Culpepper set as she stood in the office of Fred- the deadline for handling Social Security registrations thru the the New York Central, she was a local post office at June 30, and definite, business-like personality. any applications after that will have to be made thru the Raleigh Violet told Williamson. "He'll do or Charlotte Social Security

To date, some over 5,000 employes have obtained their Social Security numbers thru the Violet did her side-motion wave. Elizabeth City post office, and Her mother, Mrs. George A. applications are still coming in at the rate of almost 100 per day, the last session of the legislature. this momentous occasion. Violet It is not known how many eligible wore a blue and white print dress employes have not yet obtained ing to serve as a court calendar their numbers.

Social Security Board in taking applications for Social Security registration numbers. started last November

One Dead, Six Wounded In Church Battle

Youngstown, Ala., June 14. - 1ry, 20, a bystander, was wounded (U.P.)—Threats of reprisal shootings in the abdomen and spine and was ran through the Alabama back- believed dying. Lorene Potter, 9county tonight as peace officers year-old member of the congregasought to stamp out a feud that tion, was paralyzed with fear when blazed into a deadly gun-battle across the altar of the Owens Cha- through the lung. pel Baptist church.

Officers were fearful of new wounded in a pistol battle in the be superficial. with the others to rehearse for the crowded little Baptist country

England but came to America to five pistol bullets in his body as uty the moment he strode in the ing much good. Ten conversions Lillian Ashton, who was born in live in 1911. The character she is he "shot it out" across the altar church door and hid him to delay to play has not yet been announc- with Bert Retherford. Retherford received bullet wounds which may prove fatal aisle of the church and drew his services in the county jail every so is from the British Isles, hav- from the deputys gun before Dut- gun as Dutton entered," Deputy Sunday afternoon and have made ton collapsed and died at the feet Sheriff L. G. Godsey said. "Dutton With the three mentioned above of his 18-year-old daughter, Imowill be Raoul Henry of New York gene.

Five other persons fell as they exchanged gun fire. Martha Per-the firing began and was shot Elton Blankenship, Bob Simpson and William White, were gunplay after a deputy sheriff was struck by stray bullets. Their will be able to do some material shot to death and six persons were wounds, however, were believed to Murder charges were filed Andrew Dutton, 45, Lawrence Mrs. Retherford, acording to witcounty deputy sheriff, died with nesses, hurled herself on the dephis opening fire.

"Retherford was in the middle tried to draw his gun but was pre-

(Continued on Page Three)

Motorized Patrols Enter Abandoned Capital

Army at Outskirts

Defenders and Civilians In Flight Down the Coast to Santander

Hendaye, Franco - Spanish Frontier, June 14. (U.P.)-Motorized units of insurgent troops entered the shell-shattered city of Bilbao tonight, jubilantly proclaiming a victorious end to their 73-day siege, after the surrender of thousands of Basque defend-

Take Possession Today

Gen. Jose Fidel Davila was said in frontier dispatches to have ordered the main columns of his troops-massed outside Bilbao's shrouded by a haze of gun smoke northeastern gates—to enter the If the Basques, reported to be fleeing in great swarms along the nationalists advance guard-swift coastal highway toward Santandmotorized units-have entered the er, set fire to the city, however, Davila will order his troops to enter immediately. More than 4,000 Basque Loyalists were said by the insurgents to > outskirts. Young Jose Antonio Aguirre, president of 600,000 semi-autonomous Basques who claim to have "the oldest democracy in Europe," remained in Bilbao after all other members of the gov-

He anounced that he would remain and "die fighting."

Streets A Shambles The streets of the proud Basque capital, which has withstood 700 years of intermittent siege, were a shambles after Rebel fighting planes, swooping down to only 600 feet above the terror-ized Basques, machine-gunned

(Continued on Page Three)

Hoey Names 2 Applications for Social Security numbers will be taken at the local Commissions; post office for only two more weeks, it was anounced yesterday Other Offices

Judicial Districts, Terms of Superior Court In for Revision

Raleigh, June 14.—(U.P.)—Governor Hoey tonight appointed D. E. Henderson of Charlotte, J. Y. Jordan, Jr., of Asheville, Albion Dunn of Greenville, Junius Smith of Greensboro and S. M. Blount of Washington as a commission of judicial districts authorized by

He also appointed the followcommission, Chief Justice Stacy, The local post office, like all chairman, Superior Court Judges others, has cooperated with the J. H. Clement, J. W. Pless, Jr., M. T. Spear, and J. Paul Frizzelle. The judicial districts commission will study possible additions (Continued on Page Three)

Salvation Army to Assist In War On T. B.

A plan whereby the Salvation Army will assist local tubercular cases will be outlined by Envoy Charles Cooke in a speech to the Elizabeth City Kiwanis Club to-

Envoy Cooke said he has talked over the tuberculosis situation with Miss Cora Beam, district health nurse, and that he feels he good in this matter. Meanwhile, Envoy Cooke reports that the tent services being against Rtherford and his wife. held each night on the high school grounds here are drawing large crowds and are accomplish-

> Mr. and Mrs. Cooke conduct one conversion in the jail. Pending completion of their lo-vented by Mrs. Retherford. When cal organization, they are carrying out a program of home visitation in the community.

week, he reports.